THE RICHARD JOYCE ENDOWED PROFESSORSHIP IN EUROPEAN HISTORY

At the beginning of the year, LVC lost a long-time colleague and friend with the passing of Professor Richard Joyce. Joyce taught European history for more than 30 years at the Valley and influenced generations of students. One of Joyce's former students, Lloyd Helt '70 and his wife, Ruth Gray, have created a fundraising effort to perpetuate Joyce's teaching. Lloyd and Ruth have donated $250,000 as seed money for an endowed professorship in European History. When matched by other donations, the professorship will be established and a professor will be named. For more details, visit

FAMOUS PAINTER CAPTURES 'THE SOUL OF THE SOUTH' AT THE ARNOLD GALLERY

The Suzanne H. Arnold Art Gallery will present a stunning group of colorful paintings that capture the essence of South Carolina's Sea Islands in an exhibition, called Jonathan Green: Soul of the South. Green, who is one of the most beloved contemporary artists in the American South, will present an evening lecture on his work and career on Thursday, Sept. 7 at 7:30 p.m. in Zimmerman Recital Hall at the Gallery. The following day, Friday, Sept. 8, the Gallery will host an artist's reception from 5 to 7 p.m. The collection will be on view from Aug. 25 through Oct. 8. All events are free and open to the public.

Reunion committees are forming now for Alumni Weekend 2007. The classes of 1952, 1957, 1962, 1967, and 1977 have committees in place and would welcome additional members. If you are a member of the class of 1947, 1972, 1982, 1987, or 1992, please consider working with the College to establish your committee. It's a great way to get in touch with classmates and ensure a wonderful event in June 2007.
