STANSON TO RESUME DUTIES AT LVC

Lebanon Valley College couldn't do without Greg Stanson '63 for very long. Only one year after his retirement as vice president emeritus for enrollment and student services, the Advancement Office has roped him back into service as their official "Ambassador at Large." Greg began his duties on July 1, and will spend the fall and spring semesters visiting with alumni and friends of the College, bringing campus news and gathering feedback. "We have so many generous alumni who are connected to the College, but for various reasons cannot attend campus events. I'm thrilled to have Greg's help to spread goodwill and learn how we can better serve our alumni. We couldn't let him stay away for very long," said President Stephen MacDonald. To contact Greg, e-mail him at stanson@lvc.edu or call him at 717.867.6224.

DO YOU KNOW?

The LVC student newspaper has changed names several times throughout the years. Name as many titles as you can recall. (Hint: There are five possible answers.)

Please submit one answer only to hayward@lvc.edu and include your name and class year in your message. Everyone who answers the trivia question correctly will receive a small token of appreciation for participating in the trivia challenge. All entrants will receive a personal response and a confirmation of the correct answer.

The last trivia question was . . . What was the original name of the only movie theater in Annville?

Answer: The Astor. Before becoming the Astor in the 1930s, the theater was known as the Hippodrome. The answer to this month's question will be posted soon on <http://www.lvc.edu/alumni/tracker.aspx?url=http://www.lvc.edu/alumni/enewsletter.aspx>.
