LONGTIME DEAN AND LEGENDARY COACH GEORGE 'RINSO' MARQUETTE DIES

George Reynolds "Rinso" Marquette '48 of Annville, who in his nearly 40-year career at Lebanon Valley College served as an inspirational dean and a legendary coach, died on Nov. 15. He was 84. Marquette, vice president emeritus for student affairs, retired in 1990. He was one of a handful of College leaders in the 20th century who was so closely identified with the Valley that he had an impact on nearly every facet of life here. "He simply is Lebanon Valley College," a colleague said of him nine years ago, when Marquette and his wife, Rufina '51, were guests of honor at the dedication of the new Marquette Residence Hall.

The Liturgy of Christian Burial will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 19, at 1:30 p.m. at the St. Mark Lutheran Church, 200 E. Main Street, Annville, with interment at the convenience of the family in Mt. Annville Cemetery. There will be no viewing. The family would like to encourage friends to attend a gathering at LVC's West Dining Hall in the Mund College Center, following the services at the church.
