A photo exhibit featuring one woman from each of Pennsylvania's 67 counties, along with a message about how breast cancer has touched her life, will be displayed at Lebanon Valley College from February 10-20. The L-Online, a fascinating look at the history, lore and legends of LVC, is now available by logging on to <http://www.lvc.edu/alumni/tracker.aspx?url=http://www.lvc.edu/l-online/index.aspx>. A portion of the site, labeled "Do You Remember?" will chronicle the answers to the monthly question in the e-newsletter. Log on to check out what alumni wrote in last month about their favorite dining hall treat.

THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD

When a madcap Victorian theater troupe mounts a flamboyant musical production of the unfinished Charles Dickens' book, The Mystery of Edwin Drood, hilarity ensues as the audience is asked to solve the whodunit. The show runs for two weekends in February.

Visit <http://www.lvc.edu/alumni/tracker.aspx?url=http://www.lvc.edu/news-events/index.aspx?id=707> for more information.

GOSPEL GROUP TO PERFORM

Dr. Anthony Leach '73, who has performed throughout the eastern United States with Essence of Joy, the Penn State University choir, will bring the group to his alma mater, Lebanon Valley College, for a performance on Friday, Feb. 11 at 7 p.m. in Miller Chapel. More information may be found by logging on to <http://www.lvc.edu/alumni/tracker.aspx?url=http://www.lvc.edu/news-events/index.aspx?id=705>.

STUDENTS TRAVEL ACROSS COUNTRY

Four LVC students recently took the "trip of a lifetime" traveling across country over Christmas Break. Tim Flynn '05 (English) and three Music Recording Technology majors, Dan Melius '05, Andrew Gena '05, and Mike Hoinowski '05, maintained a trip blog that provides an insight to their experience, including photographs, e-mail notes from parents, classmates, and even strangers, and some excellent photography. They also clearly enjoy statistics, tracking everything from cheapest to most expensive gas, favorite states visited, and more. They have kindly agreed to let us take the trip vicariously by logging on to <http://www.lvc.edu/alumni/tracker.aspx?url=http://www.tflynn.org/roadtrip>. Enjoy!

GIVE A LITTLE, GET A LATTE

The dedication of Lynch Memorial Hall (and the new coffee bar) is fast approaching. You can be a part of it if you hurry! When we receive your gift to Give a Little, Get a Latte by March 11, 2005, your name will be placed on a commemorative tile lining the dramatic entryway to the Lynch Commons. Log on to <http://www.lvc.edu/alumni/tracker.aspx?url=http://www.lvc.edu/development/latte-challenge/index.aspx> for the latest on this effort to involve the 10 youngest classes of LVC alumni in sponsoring the new Lynch coffee bar.

UPDATE ON THURMOND SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Buzz Jones '72, Bill Higgins '64, and Bob Yinger '76 are pleased to announce that a total of $12,050 has been raised to date for the Dr. James M. Thurmond Scholarship Fund. The ultimate goal is $25,000 and gifts in any amount are welcome.
