LVC FIELD HOCKEY TEAM TO HOST REGIONAL NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT

After winning the Commonwealth Conference championship last Saturday, Lebanon Valley's field hockey team was chosen as one of four schools to host a regional round of competition this weekend in the NCAA Division III Championship Tournament. A second-round doubleheader will be held on Saturday, with LVC taking on New England College at 10 a.m. and Christopher Newport University playing Salisbury University at 1 p.m. The winners will meet in a third-round game at 1 p.m. on Sunday back at LVC, with the winner of that game advancing to the Final Four. Ticket prices are $5 for adults and $3 for students. Visit

WILL THE LVC STUDENT BODY RECEIVE A FREE DAY OFF FROM DR.
MACDONALD IF THE FOOTBALL TEAM BEATS ALBRIGHT?

The LVC football team is 5-4, with two of those losses coming by a combined four points to a pair of nationally ranked opponents. Tomorrow, they look to earn the program's first winning season since 1992 with a win at Albright Saturday (1 p.m.). Almost equally important, will President MacDonald honor an age-old Valley tradition by granting a student body request for a day off for the team's defeat of Albright? If you can't make the game, listen to it live on the radio at WMSS 91.1 in Middletown or on the internet at www.wmssfm.com. Visit <http://www.lvc.edu/athletics/football/News/2006-07/Albriht%20Preview.htm> for a comprehensive look at both teams.
