

Dear friends,

This is my last edition of the e-newsletter. I will be leaving my position in the LVC alumni office on October 14, and at the end of the month my family and I will be moving to southern York County, Pa. I have greatly enjoyed "talking" with you once a month for the last three-and-a-half years, and it has been my pleasure to correspond with everyone who has written to us. The e-newsletter will continue, of course, and I look forward to getting the monthly messages on my home computer!

Thank you,
Debbie Wescott '95

CLARK CARMEAN REMEMBERED

Dr. D. Clark Carmean H'85, who with his late wife, Edna, enthusiastically dedicated himself to generations of Lebanon Valley College students and was deeply loved in return, died peacefully in his sleep Sept. 14 at United Christian Church Home in North Annville. The dean of admission emeritus and former music professor was 101. He was highly regarded on campus for his generosity, wisdom, and kindness. More details may be found by visiting <http://www.lvc.edu/alumni/tracker.aspx?url=http://www.lvc.edu/news-events/index.aspx?id=804>.

OKTOBERFEST '05, OCTOBER 7-8

There's still time to register for Oktoberfest! Athletic Hall of Fame inductees include Dawn Hickman Connelly '92, Pat Flannery, Mike Rhoades '95, and Glenn Stech '65. The 1973 championship men's basketball team will also be honored. The Classes of 1995, 2000, and 2005 will celebrate reunions. Log on to the class reunion web pages for a look at the latest list of attendees;

<http://www.lvc.edu/alumni/tracker.aspx?url=http://www.lvc.edu/alumni/oktoberfest-attendees.aspx?class=1995> will take you to the lists for all reunion classes. For a schedule of events or to register online, visit

MUSIC AT THE VALLEY

On Sunday, April 2, 2006, in conjunction with the spring concert of the Concert Choir, a music alumni banquet will be held. The concert begins at 3 p.m., with a reception at 4:30 p.m. and the banquet at 5 p.m. in the West Dining Room, Mund College Center. All music alumni are invited to attend. An invitation has also been extended to all emeritus professors of music. Cost is $20 per person. Additional information and reservation forms will be published in the next edition of the Music at the Valley newsletter.

The 15th anniversary concert of the LVC Chamber Choir will be celebrated on Saturday, April 29, 2006. Chamber choir alumni are invited to attend a mid-afternoon rehearsal of three musical selections with the current chamber choir (music will be sent to your home address prior to the date). Dinner is $20 per person and begins at 5 p.m. A concert in Miller Chapel will follow at 7:30 p.m. More details will be mailed to each alumni member of the chamber choir in the near future.

MATHEMATICAL SCIENCE NEWSLETTER RETURNS

The Department of Mathematical Sciences at Lebanon Valley College is pleased to announce the revival of the AfterMath newsletter. The September 2005 issue is available online by logging on to <http://www.lvc.edu/alumni/tracker.aspx?url=http://www.lvc.edu/mathematics/aftermath>.

We hope you will take a look and share your own stories in future issues. Join our e-mail list or send news by writing to aftermath@lvc.edu.

BACK BOB

Bob is a junior at LVC. He majors in music recording technology and plays the trumpet in the marching band. Bob likes to chill out with his buds around campus and loves LVC more than he loves pizza (and that's a whole lot of love!). Visit <http://www.lvc.edu/alumni/tracker.aspx?url=http://www.lvc.edu/development/bob> to learn more about Bob and this exciting new recent grad program.

THE UNTOLD TALE

While studying abroad last spring in Italy, Gino Trosa '06 was visited by two of his friends, Kate Ruhl '05 and Shila Williams '05. When they returned, they wrote of their visit as part of the "Give a Little, Get a Latte" recent grad initiative. Visit <http://www.lvc.edu/alumni/tracker.aspx?url=http://www.lvc.edu/development/latte-challenge/ks-gino.aspx> to see Trosa's response to accusations of missed train trips and elongated breakfast breaks.

MEMORIAL SITE FOR MARIKO

The family of Mariko Furukawa, one of three Lebanon Valley College students killed in a tragic automobile accident in November 2003, has created a web site in tribute to her life and invites you to visit <http://www.geocities.com/kazuofrkw/index.html?200521>.

Mariko was killed on the way to the Annual Mid-Atlantic Taekwondo Championships in Winston-Salem, NC, in which the LVC Taekwondo club was scheduled to compete. Teammates Chelsea Morris and Michael Videtto also died in the accident.

ALUMNI WEEKEND '06

Reunion committees are forming now for Alumni Weekend 2006. The classes of 1951, 1956, 1961, 1966, and 1976 have committees in place and would welcome additional members. If you are a member of the class of 1946, 1971, 1981, 1986, or 1991, please consider working with the College to establish your committee. A festive reunion requires input from the reunion classes, so sign up today! E-mail Jamie Cecil (cecil@lvc.edu), associate director of annual giving, if you are interested. It's a great way to get in touch with classmates and ensure a wonderful event in June 2006. Class web pages are available by logging on to <http://www.lvc.edu/alumni/tracker.aspx?url=http://www.lvc.edu/alumni>.

ATHLETICS

Visit <http://www.lvc.edu/alumni/tracker.aspx?url=http://www.lvc.edu/athletics> for the latest news on all fall sports.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

If you could go back and change one thing about your college experience, what would it be?

Please submit your answer to dwescott@lvc.edu and include your name and class year in your message. Thanks!

Log on to <http://www.lvc.edu/alumni/tracker.aspx?url=http://www.lvc.edu/online/remember.aspx> to enjoy some great LVC tug of war memories (submitted last month).

DO YOU KNOW?

Name the three Deans of Admission in Lebanon Valley College's history.

Please submit one answer only to dwescott@lvc.edu and include your name and class year in your message.

Everyone who answers the trivia question correctly will receive a small token of appreciation for participating in the trivia challenge. As always, all answers will receive a personal response and confirmation of the correct answer.

The last trivia question was ... What are the words to the first verse of the Alma Mater?

Answer:

To Thee dear Alma Mater, this ringing song we raise
A song that's fraught with gladness, a song that's filled with praise
We cannot help but love Thee, our hearts are full and free
Full well we know the debt we owe, to dear old L.V.C.

The answer to this month's question will be posted soon on
