

Live

Calendar of Events

Fall 2009

WIRED is a year-long colloquium on the pervasive and ever-changing role that new technologies play in all facets of our lives and society. A series of guest speakers and films will spark discussions on social networking, digital surveillance, identity theft, video gaming, and digital art, poetry, and design. WIRED COLLOQUIUM events are noted throughout the calendar.

All of our events are open to the public and many are free. Events for which there is an admission charge are indicated with an asterisk (*). Films cost $3 for adults and $1 for students. For costs of other events, please call the numbers noted under individual listings. For more information on events, or to inquire about tickets, please call:

Performing Arts/Film Series

Student Activities Office
717-867-6161

Theater Box Office
717-867-6162

Gallery Events

Suzanne H. Arnold Art Gallery
717-867-6445

Concerts/Recitals

Music Department
717-867-6275

www.lvc.edu

On the cover: Tibetan monks create a sand mandala. A week-long celebration of Tibetan Buddhism will feature the construction and dispersal of a sand mandala painting in the atrium of Lynch Memorial Hall and include other artistic and cultural presentations, including a Tibetan banquet. Events begin on November 1.

August

---

28

ART EXHIBITION

N.C. Wyeth: Storyteller

The exhibition features an exquisite group of paintings by N.C. Wyeth, many for book and magazine illustrations. Paintings for adventure books such as The Last of the Mohicans and The Deerslayer will be on display, as well as other illustrations for The Saturday Evening Post and Red Cross magazines.

August 28–October 11, 2009

Suzanne H. Arnold Art Gallery

Wednesday, 5–8 p.m.

Thursday–Friday, 1–4:30 p.m.

Saturday–Sunday, 11 a.m.–5 p.m.

Opening Reception: Friday, August 28, 5–7 p.m.

PERFORMING ARTS

Comedian Ronnie Jordan

After only a year on the comedy scene, the kid voted “wittiest” in high school was named “Rookie of the Year” in 2001 by the Uptown Comedy Corner in Atlanta.

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 9 p.m.

30

FACULTY RECITAL

Tom Strohman '75, woodwinds

He will perform classical and jazz repertoire on saxophone, flute, and clarinet, accompanied by his son, Greg Strohman '08; internationally known jazz pianist Steve Rudolph; and LVC Adjunct Bass Instructor Jim Miller.

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 3 p.m.

September

---

2

COFFEEHOUSE SERIES

Adam Brunner '04

He has been playing local venues since 2006 with the band Second Guessed and as an acoustic rock duo with guitarist Rick Leinhard. Brunner's sound is vocally powerful and rhythmically driven. He covers songs from Paul Simon, Neil Young, David Gray, Jack Johnson, Kings of Leon, and Johnny Cash.

MJ's Coffeehouse, Annville, 9:30 p.m.

4

COMMUNITY EVENT

Local Community Church Picnic

LVC will provide free food as well as the Frisbee, Wiffle ball, and an interactive paper game. Community members are asked to bring a dessert, if possible. Call the Office of Spiritual Life at 717-867-6135 by Thursday, Sept. 3, to register. Academic Quad, 6 p.m.

PERFORMING ARTS

Comedian Jay Black

This former high school English teacher won the 2008 Campus Activities Magazine Reader's Choice for College Comedian of the Year.

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 9 p.m.

6

CONCERT

Jason Widney '02, baritone

He earned LVC degrees in music education and music before completing a master's degree in 2005 at the Peabody Conservatory. He solos with the Baltimore Opera Company and the Handel Choir of Baltimore.

Zimmerman Recital Hall, Suzanne H. Arnold Gallery, 3 p.m.

8

WIRED COLLOQUIUM FILM SERIES*

The Matrix* (1999)

This science fiction film's influences include cyberpunk, mythology, anime, Hong Kong action films, and simulated reality. Key concepts of several belief systems are touched on, including Buddhism, Hinduism, Christianity, Sufism, and Janism.

Allen Theatre, Annville, 6 p.m.

10

ART CONVERSATION

Conversation on N.C. Wyeth

Regional artists Rob Evans, Randall Exon, and Dan Massad, LVC's artist-in-residence, will discuss the influence of N.C. Wyeth on their own work. The exhibition, N.C. Wyeth: Storyteller, will be on display at the Arnold Gallery until Oct. 11.

Zimmerman Recital Hall, Suzanne H. Arnold Gallery, 5 p.m.

11

PERFORMING ARTS

Comedian Drew Thomas

A finalist on NBC's Last Comic Standing, Thomas engages his audience with his accounts of relationship follies and insights on everyday life and current affairs.

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 9 p.m.

20

FACULTY RECITAL

Dr. Marie-Aline Cadieux, cello, and Dr. Hannes Dietrich, violin, play with Reading pianist Rebecca Butler

Zimmerman Recital Hall, Suzanne H. Arnold Gallery, 3 p.m.

22

WIRED COLLOQUIUM FILM SERIES*

The King of Kong: A Fistful of Quarters (2007)

This documentary follows Steve Wiebe as he tries to take the world high score for the arcade game Donkey Kong from reigning champion Billy Mitchell. The competition changes both men's lives.

Allen Theatre, Annville, 6 p.m.

25

PERFORMING ARTS

Comedian Erin Jackson

"Washington has been the home of a number of very good comics and a few great ones . . . Erin Jackson could be next in line." — The Washington Post

Leedy Theater, Mund College Center, 9 p.m.

27

DISTINGUISHED ARTISTS SERIES*

Santiago Rodriguez, piano

He is described as "a phenomenal pianist" by The New York Times, and is one of the foremost interpreters of Rachmaninoff. His performance is the first of three in LVC's Distinguished Artists Series. For tickets, go to www.lvc.edu/music or call 717-867-6275.

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 3 p.m.

28

CONCERT

Musikkorps der Bundeswehr with Jiggs Whigham

The concert band of the German Armed Forces will feature international jazz legend Jiggs

Whigham, an American trombonist who lives in Europe, where he conducts the Berlin Jazz Orchestra and the BBC Big Band in England. He will play the Jiggs Whigham Suite.

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 7:30 p.m.

29

ART LECTURE

Landscapes by N.C., Andrew, and Jamie Wyeth

Dr. Joyce Hill Stoner, a professor at the Winterthur/University of Delaware Program in Art Conservation, will discuss three generations of artists in the Wyeth family in conjunction with the exhibition, N.C. Wyeth: Storyteller, on display until Oct. 11.

Zimmerman Recital Hall, Suzanne H. Arnold Gallery, 7 p.m.

October

---

1

CONCERT

Cypress String Quartet

This exciting San Francisco-based ensemble has performed to great acclaim at leading world venues.

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 7:30 p.m.

2

PERFORMING ARTS

Comedian Ron G

A former class clown, he describes his comedy as "high energy and clever with an urban flare." He graduated with degrees in finance and management from the University of South Carolina, but he quickly decided the corporate world wasn't for him.

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 9 p.m.

Wired Colloquium Film, Network (1976), October 6

6

WIRED COLLOQUIUM EVENT

Wired Abroad

Video blogs created by LVC students who studied overseas during the last academic year will showcase their adventures. Returned students will answer the questions of students who are considering a semester abroad. Neidig-Garber Science Center, Room 203, 11 a.m. to noon

WIRED COLLOQUIUM FILM SERIES*

Network (1976)

Paddy Chayefsky's satirical script about a fictional television network and its struggle with poor ratings was voted one of the top 10 movie scripts of all time. The film itself is among the Top 100 Greatest American Films according to the American Film Institute. Allen Theater, Annville, 6 p.m.

7

COFFEEHOUSE SERIES

Poor Tim

The duo includes Justin Smithson and Shawn Smith, who play guitar and sing covers from Chicago, Simon & Garfunkel, The Dave Matthews Band, John Mayer, and more. MJ's Coffeehouse, Annville, 9:30 p.m.

8

WIRED COLLOQUIUM PRESENTATION

Escape into the Panopticon: Virtual Worlds and the Surveillance Society

Joshua Fairfield of Washington and Lee's law school is one of the nation's leading experts on virtual worlds. He has briefed intelligence officials on terrorist activity and has written about strategies for protecting children online. Zimmerman Recital Hall, Suzanne H. Arnold Gallery, 7 p.m.

16

PERFORMING ARTS

Comedian Nate Bargatze

Bargatze hails from Old Hickory, Tenn. He now lives in New York City, where he has performed at many comedy clubs after honing his skills in Chicago, where he took improv classes and began his stand-up career. Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 9 p.m.

18

COMMUNITY EVENT

Crop Walk

Fight hunger by raising funds for local and international relief and development. There are three walks through the streets of Annville—a 1-mile, 3-1/2-mile, and 5-mile. Contact the Office of Spiritual Life for more information at 717-867-6135. Begins and ends at Zion EC Church, 710 S. White Oak St., Annville, 1 p.m.

The Actor's Image: The Japan-Virginia Society Collection of Ukiyo-e Prints
October 23–December 13, 2009

19

WIRED COLLOQUIUM PRESENTATION

Art, Entertainment & Video Games

Jenova Chen, the creative director of thatgamecompany, shares an overview of the making of his company's unique titles fIOW and

Flower, as well as his notes and ideas about the connections between video games, entertainment, and art.

Leedy Theater, Mund College Center, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

20

COLLOQUIUM FILM SERIES*

The Future We Will Create: Inside the World of TED (2007)

This documentary captures what Wired magazine calls "the hottest gathering in the world"—TED (Technology Entertainment Design). It's an annual event where an eclectic group of brilliant minds exchange bold ideas for the future.

Guests include former vice president Al Gore, musician Peter Gabriel, environmentalist Majora Carter, as well as comedians, authors, and innovators from around the world.

Allen Theatre, Annville, 6 p.m.

23

ART EXHIBITION

The Actor's Image: The Japan-Virginia Society Collection of Ukiyo-e Prints

The exhibition features 19th-century Japanese woodblock prints from the Utagawa School of artists. Illustrating specific actors and scenes from Kabuki theater, the prints present the fashion and artistic extravagance that define this prominent area of Japanese popular culture.

October 23–December 13, 2009

Suzanne H. Arnold Art Gallery

Wednesday, 5–8 p.m.

Thursday-Friday, 1–4:30 p.m.

Saturday-Sunday, 11 a.m.–5 p.m.

Opening Reception: Friday, October 23, 5–7 p.m.

PERFORMING ARTS

Comedian Pete Holmes

After working at Boston's Improv Asylum and Chicago's Improv Olympic and Playground theaters, Holmes earned a spot on Comedy Central's Premium Blend and VH1's Best Week Ever. He also writes for www.collegehumor.com.

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 9 p.m.

PERFORMING ARTS*

Student Play: *Rabbit Hole

After the accidental killing of a child, this play focuses on the survivors' grief, but David Lindsay-Abaire's work is also graced with wit. Show runs this weekend through Sunday, Oct. 25, and next weekend through Sunday, Nov 1.

Call 717-867-6162 for times and ticket information.

26

COLLOQUIUM PRESENTATION

How Many Historians Does It Take to Know the Light Bulb? Helping Students to Think About Technological Change

Ernest Freeberg, a historian at the University of Tennessee, will explore how Thomas Edison was just part of a wider cultural process that made the invention of the light bulb possible—and he will discuss how that invention changed American life forever. Zimmerman Recital Hall, Suzanne H. Arnold Gallery, 7 p.m.

27

STUDENT RECITAL

Andrew Leib and Anthony Spinnato, percussion

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 7:30 p.m.

28

ART

Japanese Tea Ceremony

Drew Hanson will demonstrate The Japanese Way of Tea in conjunction with the exhibition, The Actor's Image: The Japanese-Virginia Society Collection of Ukiyo-e Prints, on display at the Arnold Gallery until Dec. 13. Zimmerman Recital Hall, Suzanne H. Arnold Gallery, 5 p.m.

29

STUDENT RECITAL

Jaclyn Klinger, voice, and Meagan Robinson, violin

Zimmerman Recital Hall, Suzanne H. Arnold Gallery, 7:30 p.m.

30

PERFORMING ARTS*

Student Play: *Rabbit Hole

After the accidental killing of a child, this play focuses on the survivors' grief, but David Lindsay-Abair's work is also graced with wit. Show runs this weekend through Sunday, Nov 1. Call 717-867-6162 for times and ticket information.

31

CONCERT

Honors Orchestra

The best high school music students from the region will play.

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 6 p.m.

November

---

1

FACULTY RECITAL

Shelly Moorman-Stahlman, organ

In celebration of Mendelssohn's 200th anniversary, she will perform his works and Bach's.

Miller Chapel, 3 p.m.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

Tibetan Monk Mandala: Opening Ceremony and Banquet***

A week-long celebration of Tibetan Buddhism will feature the construction and dispersal of a sand mandala painting in the atrium of Lynch Memorial Hall and include other artistic and cultural presentations, including a Tibetan banquet. Check the online calendar for details. Register for the banquet with the Office of Spiritual Life at 717-867-6135 by Thursday, October 22.

Mandala construction opening ceremony: Lynch Memorial Hall, 5 p.m., banquet to follow in West Dining Hall, Mund College Center.

2

SPIRITUAL LIFE

Sand Mandala Construction

Stop by the Lynch atrium to check the progress of the Tibetan monks from Drepang Buddhist Monastery as they work grain-by-grain on a beautiful sand mandala.

Lynch Memorial Hall, all week.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

Tibetan Puja

All are welcome to observe a Tibetan Puja (worship) ceremony as performed by members of the Drepang Buddhist Monastery.

Miller Chapel, 6 p.m.

3

COLLOQUIUM FILM SERIES*

Zizek!

This documentary explores the eccentric personality and esoteric work of the “wild man of theory”: the eminent Slovenian philosopher Slavoj Žižek. Meet him at his November 6 presentation.

Allen Theatre, Annville, 6 p.m.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

Mani Stone Painting Workshop

Observe the art of Mani Stone Painting as performed by the monks of the Drepang Buddhist Monastery. Participants will learn much about the art, and will even paint a stone themselves. Space is limited. To register, contact Dr. Matthew Sayers at sayers@lvc.edu.

Fencil Building, 6 p.m.

STUDENT RECITAL

Valerie Augustine and Bria Rose, percussion

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 7:30 p.m.

COFFEEHOUSE SERIES

Double Entendre

This rock quintet began in 2006 with three LVC roommates who shared a passion for music: Jared Thomas “JT” Fredlund ’10 as lead guitarist, Brian Dempsey ’10 on vocals and percussion, and Carmen Forte ’11 on bass. The trio later recruited lead singer Phillip Freeman ’11 and rhythm guitarist Brad O’Connell ’11. Their album, Love in Ink, includes pulsating anthems. MJ’s Coffeehouse, Annville, 9:30 p.m.

5

STUDENT RECITAL

Chelsie Acaley, Kierstin Levan, and Jacquelyn Massey, flute

Zimmerman Recital Hall, Suzanne H. Arnold Gallery, 7:30 p.m.

6

SPIRITUAL LIFE

Sand Mandala Closing Ceremony

All are invited to the Lynch atrium to watch the ceremonial dispersal of the sand mandala created there by monks from the Drepang Buddhist Monastery.

Lynch Memorial Hall, 4 p.m.

COLLOQUIUM PRESENTATION

The Post Human

Slavoj Žižek is a professor at the Institute for Sociology, Ljubljana, Slovenia. He reveals the paradoxes that underpin our perception of reality and the invisible workings of ideology through his unique blend of Lacanian psychoanalysis, Marxism, and his critique of pop culture. Miller Chapel Narthex, 7 p.m.

CONCERT

Jazz Band

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 7:30 p.m.

PERFORMING ARTS

Comedian Tig Notoro

She failed three grades while entertaining classmates, but later found success as Officer Tig on The Sarah Silverman Program on Comedy Central and was a series regular on In the Motherhood on ABC, opposite Megan Mullally.

Leedy Theater, Mund College Center, 9 p.m.

7

DISTINGUISHED ARTISTS SERIES*

Petronel Malan, piano

She is a multiple Grammy nominee and was a gold medalist in several international piano competitions. Her performance is the second of three in LVC’s inaugural Distinguished Artists Series. For tickets, go to www.lvc.edu/music or call 717-867-6275.

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 7:30 p.m.

9

STUDENT RECITAL

Abigail Irwin, voice

Zimmerman Recital Hall, Suzanne H. Arnold Gallery, 7:30 p.m.

10

STUDENT RECITAL

Victoria Bartolomeo, voice, and Anthony Derrico, guitar

Zimmerman Recital Hall, Suzanne H. Arnold Gallery, 7:30 p.m.

Distinguished Artists Series Performance, Petronel Malan, November 7

12

STUDENT RECITAL

Caleb Brown, violin, and Brian Yanos, saxophone

Zimmerman Recital Hall, Suzanne H. Arnold Gallery, 7:30 p.m.

13

PERFORMING ARTS

Comedian Mo Amer

A comedian on the Muslim Comedy Tour, Allah Made Me Funny, Amer is proud to work with a group that enables him to bridge the gap between his own two cultures. Born in Palestine, he grew up in Texas.

Leedy Theater, Mund College Center, 9 p.m.

15

CONCERT

LVC Symphony Orchestra

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 3 p.m.

17

CONCERT

Guitar Ensemble

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 7:30 p.m.

COLLOQUIUM FILM SERIES*

Naqoyqatsi* (2002)

Philip Glass wrote the score, which is accompanied by mesmerizing images depicting the shift from a natural world to one dominated by technology, the synthetic, and the virtual. It chronicles how technology is altering everything: media, art, entertainment, sports, politics, medicine, warfare, ethics, nature, culture, and the future of the human race.

Allen Theatre, Annville, 6 p.m.

18

CONCERT

Percussion Ensemble

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 7:30 p.m.

19

COLLOQUIUM PRESENTATION

Viral Art Games and the Digital Wonderland of Jason Nelson

Nelson is one of the most popular hyper-text poets on the Internet. He will discuss hyper-text poetry and its possibilities as an art form.

Leedy Theater, Mund College Center, 7 p.m.

STUDENT RECITAL

Samantha Garner, piano, and Alan Myers, trumpet

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 7:30 p.m.

20 CONCERT

Small Jazz Ensemble

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 7:30 p.m.

PERFORMING ARTS

The Jason Bishop Show

His show features magic and illusion, captured live and projected so the audience has a clear view of every detail.

Leedy Theater, Mund College Center, 9 p.m.

21

MUSIC INDUSTRY CONFERENCE***

Features nationally recognized music industry executives and professional musicians. Sponsored by LVC students. Open to the public.

Blair Music Center, all day

22

ROVERS CONCERT

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, the men's music fraternity, sponsors this concert in memory of Reynaldo Rovers, a former music faculty member.

Leedy Theater, Mund College Center, 3 p.m.

24

CONCERT

Evening of Woodwinds

Enjoy a concert featuring the LVC Clarinet Choir, the Flute Ensemble, and the Saxophone Ensemble.

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 7:30 p.m.

December

---

1

STUDENT RECITAL

Paul Orsulak and Jeffrey Willet, percussion

Lutz Hall, Blair Music Center, 7:30 p.m.

2

CAROLS AT THE GAZEBO

Sing Christmas carols to the accompaniment of a brass and wind ensemble. Hot cocoa and soft cookies will be served.

Social Quad Gazebo, 9:30 p.m.

COFFEEHOUSE SERIES

Mark Rust

Rust brings his annual multi-ethnic holiday show to life with an impressive array of stringed instruments and songs.

MJ's Coffeehouse, Annville, 9:30 p.m.

5

PERFORMING ARTS

Recycled Percussion

With their branded "Junk Rock" style of power-percussion, this band of three drummers and turntablist "DJ Dirty Soul" are known for their ballistic visual show and mesmerizing drumming. With hip-hop-inspired vocal and body percussion, they play their masterful music to the vibe of a giant rock concert.

6

CHRISTMAS AT THE VALLEY

Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols

This annual concert features over 200 LVC student choristers and ensemble players. A free-will offering will be taken for Operation Santa Claus for needy Lebanon County families. There will be a live nativity scene outside and free refreshments in the Mund College Center.

Miller Chapel, 3 and 7 p.m.

Lebanon Valley College

101 North College Avenue
Anville, Pennsylvania 17003

www.lvc.edu